

ELECTRONIC DELIVERY OF STATEMENTS

In an advisory issued June 10, 1997, (the "Advisory") the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC") provided that futures commission merchants such as GAIN Capital Group, LLC ("GAIN Capital") may deliver customer confirmations, purchase-and-sale and monthly statements (collectively "Customer Statements") solely by Electronic Medium without also delivering corresponding mailed copies of such Customer Statements. To take advantage of the Advisory, GAIN Capital must obtain appropriate consent from GAIN Capital's Customers.

Accordingly, pursuant to the guidelines set forth in the Advisory, GAIN Capital hereby advises you as follows:

1. GAIN Capital will primarily deliver Customer's Customer Statements by electronic mail or email. Arrangements for facsimiles may be made if circumstances warrant.
2. This consent will be effective upon receipt by GAIN Capital and remain so until further receipt by GAIN Capital of written notice from Customer of revocation of this consent;
3. There may be additional fees incurred by Customer for receipt of Customer Statement by email or facsimile, and by signing below Customer hereby authorizes deduction of such fees directly from Customer's Account(s);
4. Customer will receive Customer Statements solely and primarily by email (or in exceptional circumstances, facsimile) and will not receive duplicate Customer Statements by mail;

Customer hereby agrees that this addendum in no way modifies the Commodity Customer Agreement executed by Customer, and specifically incorporates the same by reference herein, including, without limitation, the provisions of Section 14 of the Commodity Customer Agreement which require Customer to review and object both orally and in writing to any discrepancies in Customer Statements, and Section 15 of the Commodity Customer Agreement which require Customer to notify GAIN Capital's compliance department in writing of a change of address, email address and/or facsimile number.

If the above terms are acceptable and Customer consents to receiving Customer Statements solely by email (or in exceptional circumstances, facsimile), please sign below where indicated.

All daily and monthly Customer Statements should be sent to the following:
